Supervisors Study New Airport Site

Another site for the county airport must be sought to meet demands of NASA for the lunar landing static test site here, the board of supervisors agreed Monday after hearing acreage requirements of the Civil Aeronautics Administration.

Concurring in the view was the representative of Smith and Saunders, Jackson consulting engineers who sought the contract for the survey work involved in an application for federal aid for the flying field.

Beat 5 Supervisor R. G. Hubbard, Jr., noted that the necessary expansion of the present facility would cripple the adjoining landowners subdivision and expressed doubt about plane traffic in what might become a heavily populated area. He said it appears 62 acres are needed for the field and seven for a parking area. A tract closer to the test site will be sought.

Rep. Clarence Lader presented the board with a new state flag for the Courthouse and called on it to help him fight the bill now in the House ways and means committee which would eliminate the 1.75 cent gasoline tax according to the three coastal counties and channel it into the state general fund. He also reported that some objectionable features have been called to his attention in his bill to create a port commission for the county and he is preparing a substitute measure.

At the suggestion of Attorney Lucien M. Gex the board voted on the motion of L. M. Frierson, seconded by Charles Levinghouse, to ask Lader to get passed a local and private bill permitting the supervisors to purchase from any fund in which money is available the two-way radio equipment needed by the sheriff's office.

Clerk Claiborne Lader presented a letter stating that the bond of Beat 2 Constable Clarence Wheat had been cancelled and the board went on record that it is not responsible for any actions taken by such elected officers who are not bonded. No reason was given by the insurance company for the cancellation and it was noted the constable cannot serve without bond. Motion was by James Neacase, seconded by Levinghouse.

Letters also were read from State Senator Quidman Lot noting his efforts to defeat the oil utilization bill as requested by the board and from U. S. Rep. William Colmer stating he is "trying to run down the proper approach" to the supervisors' request that he assist in getting the NASA site postoffice located in the county.

During the afternoon bills on the county general fund were

A list of 15 streets to be resurfaced and four pre-cast concrete bridges to be installed were read into the minutes of the board of supervisors meeting Monday by Beat 5 Supervisor R. G. Hubbard, Jr., after a four-man delegation from the Jaycees called on the board to rescind its motion for a $200,000 bond issue for road work in the beat unless streets are named and specifications made a part of the record.

The resolution, adopted by the Jaycees membership last Thursday night on the recommendation of its directors and political action committee, threatened to circulate a petition calling for an election on the proposed bond issue in the absence of a specific list of the work proposed with plans and cost estimates. The Jaycees stated opposition to the presently proposed plan but declared themselves in favor of a "well planned and engineered road improvement program."

After about an hour's harangue with the Jaycees, Hubbard inquired of his colleagues their view about rescinding the motion. They concurred that the issue could only be stopped by petition as far as they were concerned. Next Tuesday is the deadline to file this.

At Hubbard's request since he is chairman of the board, Beat 4 Supervisor James D. Neacase moved, seconded by Beat 1 Supervisor Charles A. Russ, Jr., that the county engineer prepare plans and specifications for the work under state highway department specifications, providing for proper off-drainage and raise the roads where necessary for construction. Hubbard then inserted the list of work he plans with the issue, inquiring if it suited the Jaycees if he added a few more streets if the money could be stretched.

Charles Carter, Jr., Jaycee president, indicated the action seemed to fulfill his organization's concern and Earl Ramond, member of the delegation, said as did Michael D. Haas, Jr., Norton Haas, Jr., himself a civil engineer, expressed qualms and raised again a variety of technicalities.

Streets listed by Hubbard were Third Street in Middletown, 1.3 miles; Waveland Avenue, Louisville and Nashville Railroad to U. S. 90, 1.6 miles; St. Joseph Street in county, .9; Lader, Blakemore, Julia, Thomas and Main Streets, all 4 miles; St. John, .5; Old Spanish Trail, 2.6 miles; Nicholson Avenue, 1 mile; Clermont to Lower Bay Road, .8; Lakeshore Road, .5 mile and two bridges; Washington Street Road 2.5 miles and bridges at Choctaw and Chapman Bayous, and one mile in Clermont Harbor. This was approved unanimously.

Hubbard recalled that Lucien M. Gex, attorney for the board, had advised when he first sought the bond issue that listing the streets to be improved was not required and when he started to read them out Monday Gex cautioned that a proper description of the section of each street was necessary "to keep you out of

Negro Infant Fatally Burned In Home Fire

A two-year-old Negro girl, Dora Lanesau, died shortly after arrival at Gulfport Memorial Hospital Monday morning where she was rushed after her clothing caught fire at her home, 312 Sycamore St.

She was discovered by Ervin Jones who noticed the three-room frame dwelling was ablaze. He grabbed the child from the crib in the middle room and tried to tear off the flaming garments, suffering slight hand burns in the act.

The child, who had been alone in the place, was taken to Hancock General Hospital and then transferred to Gulfport. It appeared the fire had started from a gas heater.

Daughter of Reginald and Marcella Lanesau, she was buried Tuesday morning at Cedar Rest Cemetery with Rev. Wade of St. Rose de Lima Church officiating.

School Ordering Eyed By Board, Sills Rapped

Bills, budgeting and purchasing through the proper channels occupied the bulk of the county board of education's meeting Monday afternoon with Attorney Walter J. Phillips citing to the three school principals the board's policies and the state law.

On the motion of Beat 2 Trustee Alton D. Kellar, all bills for February property signed and docketed were approved for payment but a raft of claims sent last week to the superintendent's office from Hancock North Central School were tabled for detailed study when the board reconvenes at 9:30 a.m. Saturday. Most of the latter items dated back to last fall and some went even further back.

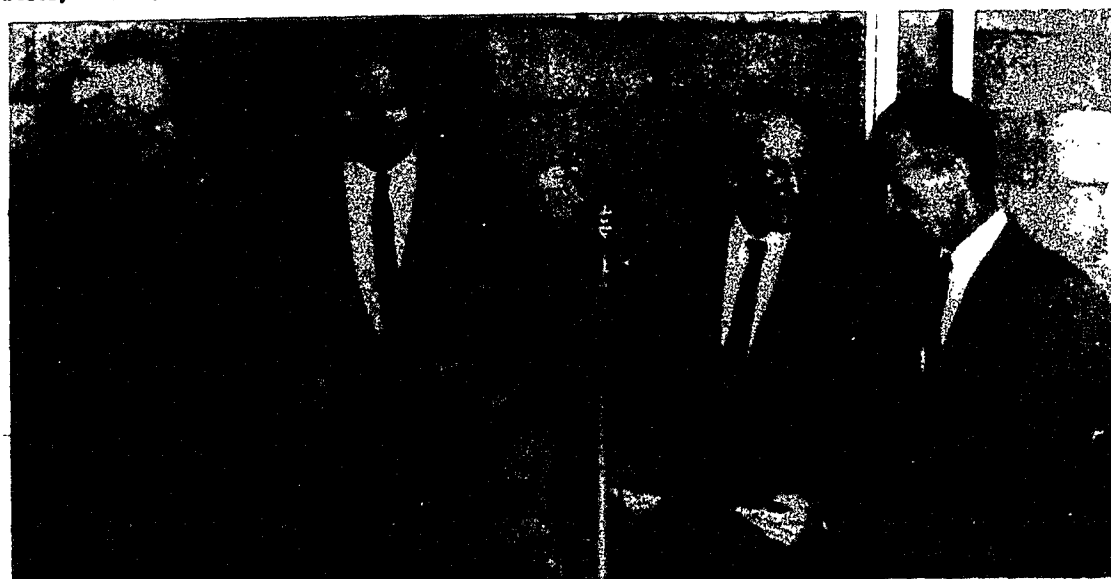

Trustee Lucis Neacase of Beat 3 brought up the budgeting and purchasing question by inquiring why $3,000 was budgeted for North Central this year and the shop was woefully short of equipment. Principal Leo Rouse said he had turned in a list at the last meeting of the items D. J. Martin, vocational agricultural teacher, needed but no action had been taken. Members recalled a list being shown but it could not be found. S. P. Powell of Beat 4 wanted to know why the list was presented at the end rather than the beginning of the school year and Mrs. Estelle Depree, secretary to the superintendent, said most of the budgeted money already had been spent.

A request to dismiss Billy Sills, basketball coach and social studies instructor, from the North Central faculty was presented by Jimmy Lader who said

City OKs Auditor On Cost of Plant

Bay St. Louis's Mayor and Commission Council agreed Monday to Industrial Electric's choice of John O. Langston as the CPA to audit costs involved in constructing the firm's enameling division plant on Central Avenue as a step toward the city's payment for the plant from proceeds of last year's $300,000 BAWI bond issue.

Council, after hearing from land surveyors Lucien Raymond and Roland Weston, referred their recommendation for a modification in wording of the city's subdivision regulations to the planning commission. The regulations, which go into effect Saturday, specify as qualified to do certain work "land surveyors... registered" in Mississippi, whereas the state makes no provision for registering land surveyors although it does for other similar professions.

HD Council Sets Dates For Shows

The Hancock County Home Demonstration Council selected April 11 as the date for its annual dress revue, Orit in Cotton, and scheduled the flower and vegetable show for May, when it met Feb. 23 at the Agricultural Center with Mrs. James Fargason presiding. Mrs. M. J. Eccles will be chairman for the former.

A $70 check from the Flattop Club's recent benefit was presented to Mrs. C. R. Beyer, Heart Fund chairman. Mrs. George Stelz, service chairman for the Cancer Crusade, spoke on that fund campaign in April and introduced Mr. and Mrs. Andy Becker who are working on the project.

An exhibition on home preparedness was given by Mrs. E. F. Gates. She showed how persons without access to a bomb shelter can protect themselves from fallout.

Refreshments were served to Mmes. Ivan Bradford, H. Ogden, C. R. Beyer and Jeanne Williams of the Bay St. Louis club; A. J. Buz, C. Phelps, Edward LeVasseur and Earl Gaze, Waveland; W. Chevis, Thomas Moran, Helen Bickler, Laura Leimer and Ellen Leimer, Bayou La Croix; A. M.

Hospital Women Pick Chairmen Of Committees

Committee chairmen for the coming year were appointed by Mrs. Leo W. Seal, president, when the Hancock General auxiliary met Monday morning.

Named were Mesdames C. C. McDonald, parliamentarian; Lucille Weeks, orientation; Clem Penrose, hospitality; Ray Dennis, membership; W. L. Chevis, sewing; P. E. Porter, flowers; A. P. Smith, Pinksie the puppet; W. Baker, am-4-let; J. Kelly, television; A. Kuehn, publicity; and Miss Heartista Mohr, scrapbook.

Mrs. Seal urged members to attend the workshop conducted by the Mississippi Hospital Association on hospital auxiliaries March 22 in Gulfport. Further information may be secured from her at HO 7-5326 or Mrs. A. J. Ramage, HO 7-5985.

Mrs. Dennis reported invitations were sent to all members and a large number of prospective members for a coffee at the home of Mrs. Sam Whitfield, 610 N. Beach Blvd., from 10:30 a.m. until noon Tuesday as part of an extensive enrollment drive. Members were asked to bring a friend and to wear audibly smocks for the occasion.

Appreciation was extended to Administrator Thomas O. Logue for the handling of dedication ceremonies for the late Dr. A. P. Smith and to Mrs. Charles Carter and Miss Barbara Gray for painting auxiliary emblems for cars in the Carnival parade.

Price, spice and everything nice!

Who ever thought a car that saves like this could have so much sizzle? Chevrolet engineers, that's who! Liveliness and luxury for a low, low price were exactly what they had in mind to begin with. And they began from scratch with a whole carload of ingenious new ideas designed to give you more for your money. That spunky 6 with gas-sipping stinginess is just one example. Another: a new unitized Body by Fisher that's fit for a full-size family inside, easy to park outside. Still another: tough but gentle one-piece Mono-Plate rear springs that outdo many a bigger car for quiet comfort. Any wonder Chevy II won Car Life magazine's 1962 Engineering Excellence award hands down? (The wonder would be if you settled for anything less—once you get your hands on one at your Chevrolet dealer's!)

Close Question

The Jaycees have a fine reputation nationally, and certainly in its couple of years in Bay St. Louis the local chapter has set a high standard for the future years.

If one thing has plagued this organization nationally more than anything else, it has been an occasional entry into controversial political questions. Even when a decade ago the national body adopted as a project the adoption of the Hoover commission recommendations, supposedly bipartisan, there was a serious rift within the Jaycees themselves.

This week we hear the local Jaycees as an organization have left themselves open to the charge of politics when they threatened to circulate petitions to force a vote on the proposed $200,000 bond issue for Beat 5 road construction. While we think Supervisor R.G. Hubbard should have publicized what roads he expected to improve with the proceeds of the bond issue, we question the wisdom of the Jaycees in its action as an organization, notwithstanding our belief in the sincerity of Mr. Charles Carter, Jr., its president, in protesting to the board of supervisors that the organization was not playing politics.

The implication of politics was unfortunately heightened due to the composition of the delegation appearing before the board of supervisors. The four who appeared included besides Mr. Carter, the president, Mr. Earl Ramond, one of Mr. Hubbard's opponents for reelection three years ago, Mr. J. Norton Haas, Jr., the only resident of Hancock County who is an active civil engineer, but not county engineer and his brother, Mr. Michael Haas.

Under the circumstances the Jaycees should not be thin skinned when others question their non-political status.

This paper has editorially objected to dismissal of some faculty members at North Central, this included the equivalent of dismissal of prior basketball coach James Johnson, whose team had just won the overall state championship. We thought then, and still do, that petty personalities and politics were responsible. He was succeeded by Coach Billy Sills, whose teams have been outstanding if not quite as successful. He now is under fire. We don't know as much about basketball as many high school students, but the feeling we have is that personalities are responsible for this move.

Two wrongs never made a right though mathematically two negatives may make a plus. It's hard to argue with 30 wins in 34 games for a team in its second year as an A-AA competitor.

At Waveland

Carnival, described by Mr. Webster as the season of rejoicing before Lent, observed in R. C. (Roman Catholic, we trust) countries; feasting or revelry, has come and gone once more. Rejoicing, feasting, and revelry truly prevailed there were dances, and all but the most introverted masked, after-parade parties, in short just about everybody had fun.

Gaiety At Lakeshore

One of the larger pre-Mardi Gras fetes was hosted by Wilfred Bordages at the Lakeshore County Club Saturday night. . . a 31 pound roast, two roasted pigs stuffed with rice dressing, an enormous tossed salad, French bread and a large enough selection of beverages to please Bacchus himself were served to 53 guests. Among these were Mary and Joe Rousseau—Mary's eye operation was a complete success and she received her permanent glasses in May; Nettie and Harold Burdick and their weekend guest, Nettie's brother, Doc Darlino of Opelousas; Doris and Baldwin Wilday, Doris' parents, the Dan Sellens. Mrs. Sellens retired shortly and after a prolonged trip to California and on to the World Fair in Seattle, the Sellens will spend much time at their home on the corner of Central and Terrace Avenues; Gloria and Joe Servant, Pat and John Gohres, Dorris and Cliff Vogt, Mr. Charlie and daughter, Irene Graff, Gert Robertson, who was feeling a bit shaky following a bout with flu, Ruth and Al Landry—Ruth, too, was under the weather; Nettie and Lloyd Garcia, Gloria and Herbert Peterson, Gloria arriving late, as she chaperoned the children's dance at the C-I-L Youth Center; honey-mooners, Eastie and Jean Charbonnet; Beulah and Frank Peterson, full of plans for their trip to the boat convention in Chicago. . . they left Sunday and are due to return today; Gerri and Sam Blanchard, Josie and Clarence Herbig—Josie feeling honored to have been selected as godmother for Elsie and John Klein's pride and joy, little Cindy Ann, Lloyd Garcia will be her godfather; Shirley and Ed Hawkins, she sporting a stunning new hair—do—Elsie Davis with shimmering silver tresses, Soc Richmond accompanied by his son and daughter-in-law; and of course, all of the Bordages. The twist was tried by many, but Ruth Landry, Herbert Peterson and Howard would have won all prizes if there had been awards.

Fran and Bob Lucas, milk men, aren't trying to keep up with the Joneses—it's the Lynches! Their fifth daughter, Cynthia Ann, arrived at Hancock General Hospital at 8:40 a.m. Sunday weighing six pounds, eight ounces.

Anyone attending the Parade of Proteus may have recognized the familiar faces of Hazel and Frank Chase, Clermont Harbor weekenders, on the Peppermint twist float, and their daughter, Faye, son-in-law Pete and children, Sheryl, Dale and Peter on the Can-Can vehicle.

The children of Sears Avenue paraded on Saturday afternoon—some were clowns, others beatniks, and gypsies—the march was complete with an elaborately decorated float and several horses.

Bay Side of the News

Capt. and Mrs. J. W. Clark, daughters Susan and Kappy, the William Pitcairns, daughter, Valda and Mrs. Pitcairns' mother, Mrs. James A. Evans are just about the parade-happiest people we know. They began Carnival Day by dashing into New Orleans to view Comus in all his splendor, hastened home to take in Chicapoula, drove back to the Crescent City winding up the day at the Rex parade.

Grown-Up Fetes

It was a gay crowd indeed that gathered at the KC Hall Saturday night for their annual Carnival dance. . . costumes were colorful and varied. Jenny Benigno as Yogi Bear and her sister, Lena Chincich as Little Booboo walked off with first prize, Charlie Scianna in Indian attire, was second, and Alice Heitzmann's clown get-up took third place honors—Margaret and George Heitzmann were an awesome pair from Hades. . . and Frances Compretta in a Peppermint twist costume and husband and Tony as Miller the Killer almost brought down the house.

Red Davis' band produced danceable rhythms for celebrants at the Legion's masquerade ball Monday night. . . This said that gentlemen attending were a bit leary about dancing the twist with one very attractive young lady after D. W. North broke his arm while attempting this convulsion with the aforementioned. . . fortunately she was able to render first aid to the sufferer, who was then whisked to Hancock General for x-rays, etc. Winners of first place awards in the four categories were Charlie Davis as Mr. Klean; Estelle Depree, a raggedy scare crow; Beryl and Lucien Kidd, a Chinese couple and newlyweds Joan and Speedy Rhodes and Dot and Vernon Bermond, a group of beatniks.

On the Avenue

Col. Hewitt, who seems to be plagued with a piggy problem at the moment; Thelma Dickson, just returned from attending her uncle's funeral in Mobile; Kate Saux and Libby Perry discussing the luncheon to be held at the KC hall on the 28th; Catherine Mayer and her mother, Mrs. Tony Bourgeois, Charlie Mollere with a definite gleam in his eyes—he's thinking that the trout should be biting soon, no doubt, Gladys and Harold Hicks Saturday shopping and Ralph Shelton, preparing to desert Waveland for Texas as he's been transferred to another Tennessee Gas Co. location.

Pearlington Soldier

Studies Aviation

Army Pvt. Joseph H. Malone, son of Eldridge Malone, Pearlington, completed a five-week aircraft maintenance course at The Aviation School, Ft. Rucker, Ala. The 25-year-old soldier entered the Army last August and received basic training at Ft. Gordon, Ga. Before entering the Army, Malone was employed as an instructor by Rosa Temple High School, Vicksburg. He was graduated from Valena C. Jones High School, Bay St. Louis, in 1953 and received his bachelor of science degree from Alcorn Agricultural and Mechanical College, Lorman, in 1961.

Complaint Dep?

And they're plural this week. The overcrowded condition of the school bus has parents tearing their hair and children nursing trampled feet—we refer to the bus that picks up Waveland school, North Bay Elementary and Bay High pupils—grape in 2 centers children playing in Cedar Rest Cemetery—a resident noted a boy gleefully riding a horse across the graves recently—not only is such horseplay disrespectful, but costly as headstones, vases and even coping have been reported damaged.

From the Pass

Lt. Wallace E. Farragut, husband of the former Dianne Hincks of Pass Christian, until recently stationed with the National Guard at Camp Chaffee, has been selected to attend helicopter school in Virginia—Dianne is quite jubilant about this development as she'll be returning to the site of her honeymoon.

Speaking of Camp Chaffee, Jan Alme and Jean Arcones returned from the Arkansas post last Monday after spending a few days with their respective husbands, E. V. and Andre—they enjoyed a visit with Lt. and Mrs. T. J. Bourgeois during their stay.

MR. AND MRS. DAVID DALE PERANICH

Peranich-Hincks Nuptials Spoken at Pass Church

Miss Odele Parit la Hincks, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William C. Hincks of Pass Christian, became the bride of David Dale Peranich, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred J. Peranich of DeLisle, in a double ring ceremony at St. Paul's Catholic Church Feb. 17 and tropicana roses arranged in gold vases Rev. James P. McGlade, pastor, heard the vows and Thomas Bourdin was organist.

Miss Hincks, given in marriage by her father, wore a wedding gown of candlelight peau de sole embellished with appliques of French lace interwoven with raised embroidery. The fitted bodice was designed with a deep scooped neckline and three-quarter length sleeves. The bouffant skirt terminated in a chapel length train which was also adorned with re-embroidered lace. Her fingertip veil of illusion was attached to a coronet of seed pearls and she carried a cascade of white roses centered with an orchid and English ivy and lace handkerchief which had been carried by her mother and two sisters on their wedding day and a crystal rosary, a gift of the groom.

Mrs. Wallace Farragut of Ft. Smith, Ark., was her sister's matron of honor. Her chapel length dress of cocoa brocade featured a boat neck, fitted SIGHTS AND SOUNDS ALONG THE WAY - The colorful Carnival costumes of children, these of the home-made variety, the most attractive and original; small girls on school floats, doll-like in unaccustomed lipstick and rouge and small hands raised in the traditional "throw me something mister" appeal—and the, for once, welcome wall of the North wind obligingly blowing away clouds that threatened to mar the joys of Mardi Gras day.
